Jacob TILLEY, sr born abt 1775, New York, NY,¹ occupation farmer, married 16 Nov 1796, in Waterborough Par, NB,²
Charlotte NICKERSON, born abt 1779, died 12 Jan 1862, Gagetown, Queen's Co, New Brunswick.³ Jacob died 23 Oct 1849, buried: 25 Oct 1849, Gagetown, Queen's Co, New Brunswick.⁴ [NB: written record of his marriage is unclear; as is the birth/baptism of their first born child. RE-CHECK both]

Jacob owned property in Gagetown, being Lots 1, 2 & 6 in Block "G" - possibly inherited from his father. Lots were sold to Isaac DeVeber between 1831 & 1850, the latter possibly around time of Jacob's death. Before 1811 Jacob acquired a mortgage on a 1ac lot in Gagetown from John Hoben; Mtg was re-paid.

Did Jacob & wife Charlotte have other children? [an on-going study]

1. ? a son named Jacob? One of that name, born c1811, was married at Woodstock 3 Jan 1852. His info given at that time, "age 41, formerly of Sheffield". Then, 'a' Jacob Tilley, formerly of Sheffield, died: 3 Jan 1853 at Woodstock. Confusion exists due to the presence of another Jacob Tilley, born 1815, who also lived in the Woodstock area. The latter was a son of James Tilley sr. [James sr & Jacob sr were brothers.]

2. ? a son, Henry A. Tilley (c1819-1903), who married 1st, 4 Jul 1845 Elizabeth Ann Currier, eldest daughter of John Currier & Lydia Bell. [Eliz'th died 28 Jan 1853, age 33, & was buried Old Burying Grd, Fredericton, NB - leaving one son, James Henry Tilley (c1844-1904) who is buried Castle Hill Cem, Aroostook Co, ME]. Henry married 2nd, Louisa A. Coffin, by whom he had a number of children. Descendants of the latter include, Anne Henderson (Mrs. Robert Franklin) of CT & Garfield Plantation, Aroostook Co, ME.

Charlotte: In a letter Thomas Morgan Tilley wrote to his son, Leonard "13 Jan 1865, Aunt Jacob Tilley died Saturday night & will be buried Monday at 2 o'clock.." [RE-CHECK year!]

TILLEY, Samuel Leonard of Fredericton & Saint John 1848 -1865

Updated 29 July 2006

1818 - 1896 Samuel Leonard Tilley Born Gagetown, NB.
Apprentice druggist in Saint John in 1831.
Businessman and shipowner. Provincial and Federal Politician
Father of Confederation.

Samuel Leonard Tilley, a Father of Confederation, was a New Brunswick politician who attended all three Confederation conventions. In addition to two terms as the premier of New Brunswick, Tilley held the posts of Minister of Customs and Minister of Finance in the federal government, and twice served as his province's lieutenant-governor. He was knighted by Queen Victoria in 1872.

Tilley's reputation as a successful businessman and active politician was such that in July 1856 a 785-ton ship named S L TILLEY (ship portrait) was launched by Saint John shipbuilder and shipowner George Roberts. A year later, a 118-ton schooner S L TILLEY was built by Gilbert Brewster in Harvey Bank. A 1420-ton ship built in 1875 by Cruickshank & Pittfield of Saint John was named GOVERNOR TILLEY (ship portrait).

During the late 1840's to 1860's, Samuel Tilley owned shares in eight New Brunswick-built vessels (identified to date) that traded out of Saint John. Two of the vessels were built by Amasa Coy in Gagetown where members of the Tilley family resided.
